MOVING PICTURE FEATURES

"Saints and Sinners," the Famous Players feature at the Temple last night, was only mediocre. Portions of the film were photographically excellent. The best thing in the picture was the pastor—a very good bit of acting. A serious drawback to the picture was in its exteriors, which were taken in Florida. A fault with this particular picture not only. Unless a story be a story of Florida the illusion is lost to anyone familiar with the state. "Saints and Sinners" produced in California, or elsewhere, would be much more convincing to Floridians. In the recent feature that Pauline Frederick was seen in here, the Australian scenes were Florida scenes and nothing else to the Florida spectator.

La Boheme, in which Alice Brady appears at the Temple this afternoon and tonight, ought to be a highly interesting picture, if it is given the production claimed for it, and hence the exotic atmosphere of the French art circles.

The program for tomorrow is: "Tom Martin—A Man," A Selig drama; "The Cold Feet Getaway," Vitaphone comedy; and Paramount cartoon.

Peggy Hyland, the attractive star seen in "Saints and Sinners" last night, appeared in but this one production for the Famous Players company. She has become a member of the Vitaphone company.

WORDS OF APPRECIATION

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to the dear friends who were so lovingly solicitous and kind during the illness of our little boy, and for the beautiful flowers and other tokens of friendship so lavishly bestowed. To the good doctors, one and all, who were so unrelenting in their attention and so sympathetically cooperative, we cannot say all that is in our hearts; language is not rich enough. To Miss Marshall of the hospital and her corps of nurses, we are most grateful for tender and efficient care. For the ministers of the churches and those Christian friends who united their prayers with ours for the restoration of our boy, we thank our Heavenly Father, and for the sparing of his precious little life we give God the glory.

"Blest be the tie that binds
Our hearts in Christian love;
The fellowship of kindred minds
Is like that above."

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Collier.
Dr. and Mrs. E. Van Hood.

The rules committee of the public library have adopted the following rules to govern the institution as soon as it is formally opened. The various committees are hard at work every day getting everything in readiness to open up. The task of indexing by title and cross indexing by subjects is a hard one, and those in charge of the work deserve much credit for their untiring efforts in getting the library in shape for use. The opening date will be announced as soon as the work is complete, which the committees hope will be in the next few days.

If this card is lost a new one will be given after due notice upon the payment of five cents. Number of Volumes: Two books may be drawn at a time, one only of which is fiction. Not more than two volumes of new fiction and two volumes of new juvenilia to one family.
